

AMET City College Salutes the Indian Navy for the safe rescue of the crew onboard MV Reun Sham no Varunah

#Keep Shipping Safe
#Protect seafarers

AMET City College
(Post Sea Training Centre)

The Indian Navy thwarted an attempt by Somali pirates to use a hijacked merchant vessel as a base for piracy attacks. The operation, led by INS Kolkata and marine commandos, resulted in the apprehension of 35 pirates and the safe evacuation of 17 crew members. The vessel was intercepted, and despite some pirates opening fire, the Navy used minimal force necessary to neutralise the threat. The successful operation demonstrates the Indian Navy's commitment to maritime security.